DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on December 10, 2009 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112, 1st paragraph

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-3, 5-7, 10, 12 and 14-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The original disclosure does not appear to be provide support for a tooth, particularly a first tooth, that has both a cutting edge and an abutment as now set forth in claim 1, lines 14-16. Rather, support appears to be provided for one tooth (e.g., 4) having a cutting edge (e.g., 10) and a cooperating tooth (e.g., 6) having an abutment (e.g., 15).

Further, the original disclosure does not appear to provide support for a tooth, including the first tooth, having first and second widths as now claims in the last five lines of claim 1 (and additionally claims 16-18). Rather, support appears to be provided for a width of each tooth (which are different from the thickness previously referenced in the claim) such that a first width that is further from the tip is greater not narrower than a second width that is closer to the tip as shown in the figures.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112, 2nd paragraph

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-3, 5-7, 10, 12 and 14-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 14, the recitation "one of the cooperating tooth edges" is vague and indefinite as to whether it refers to the one previously set forth in line 10 or to another such tooth edge; in line 17, the recitation "is directed parallel to a plane of the hairs" renders the claim vague and indefinite since the invention is being positively defined in terms of the hairs which are not part of the claimed invention; in line 19, the recitation "longitudinal plane" is vague and indefinite as to what it refers.

Claims Not Rejected Over Prior Art

6. Claims 1-3, 5-7, 10, 12 and 14-18 are considered to read over the prior art of record because the prior art or record does not teach or suggest the claimed combination of features including a tooth, particularly a first tooth, wherein one of the cooperating tooth edges includes both a cutting edge and an abutment as claimed; that is, an abutment is formed in a zone between a tip of the tooth and the cutting edge. Further, the prior art or record does not teach or suggest the claimed combination of features including the first and second width configuration as set forth at least at the end of claim 1 (and additionally claims 16-18). However, these claims cannot be considered to be "allowable" at this time due to the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st paragraph set forth in this Office action. Therefore, upon the claims being rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112 set forth in this Office action, further consideration of these claims with respect to the prior art will be necessary.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
